

~~SECRET~~

CONFIDENTIAL

25X1A

FD
598

DATE: 25X1A

INFO.

PAGES 25X1A

SUPPLEMENT

25X1A

25X1X

- The Third Guards Brigade is in Zoflowk.

The Nineteenth Guards Howitzer Brigade is in Lewandowka.

25X1A

The Ninety-Sixth Brigade is in Sokolniki. ( ) Comment: Previously reported as the Ninety-Eighth Artillery Brigade.)

25X1A

All of the above localities are in the vicinity of Lwow. (██████████ Comment: Sokolniki is about 7 km SSW of Lwow. Others cannot be located.) The three other brigades previously reported as components of this division are in transit from Austria to the USSR. A seventh brigade, number unknown, of self-propelled assault guns, under the command of Lt. Col. Andrey Vogov (also received as Nogov), Hero of the Soviet Union, has been added to the division.

2. The division has been removed from the category of combat troops and incorporated into the Ukrainian Front. It has reached Point 1-B in the demobilization plan.

25X1A

Comment: Details of the significance of this statement are not available.

3. The schools attached to each brigade have been dissolved. The soldiers are told to keep track of the number of rounds fired. Rifle barrels are changed after one thousand rounds.

4. New troops recently arrived in Allentsteig, Austria, from Hungary. (██████████ Comment: This is confirmed by other sources. The troops are from various branches and services. Allentsteig appears to be a replacement depot.)

This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1973 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Archivist of the United States.
REF ID: A66033

Document No.

NO CHANGE in Class.

~~DECLASSIFIED~~

Class. CHANGED TO

DDA 37

Auth: DDA REG. 77/1183

Date: 070478 By: 025

at No. 1
 GE in class.
 ASSIGNED CHANGED TO:
 ODA 11-11-77

CONFIDENTIAL

25X1A

CLASSIFICATION SECRET

[illegible]